PRIZES TO MISSION WORKERS.

Work of Year Is Reviewed at Anniversary Meeting.

The Central Mission held the closing exercises of its year of work at the People's Church, No. 316 North Eleventh street. This was the nineteenth anniversary, and the large auditorium was filled with children and parents from that section of the city. The Reverend William Johnson, pastor of Olive Branch Congregational Church, led in the singing, and he was assisted by his daughter, Grace, and a band of boys from his church.

The leading feature of the occasion was the awarding of prizes for different departments of the work, as follows: In the sewing department, prizes were awarded for buttonhole work, first, to Irene Thompson, and second, to Lottie Sager; for hemming, first, to Ella Becher, and second, to Alice Murphy; for model garments, first, to Emma Schenckler, and second, to Florence Kiepleh, and third, to Norma Robuch; for darning, Lydia Luck. Prizes were also awarded for best loaf of bread cooked by a pupil of the cooking department.

Six prizes were also awarded those who recited perfectly the greatest number of Scripture texts. The mothers' class presented the Reverend Mr. Johnson, a handsome quilt as a token of their appreciation of his services in connection with the mission.

Central Mission was founded in 1883, and to-day has an enrollment in all departments of 300. There are twenty-six girls and four boys, who have been absent only once or twice during the past five years. There are thirty-six girls in the cooking class, under the efficient management of Gilmore, and the results of their work, as shown by yesterday's exhibit, spoke volumes for the instruction they had received.

The officers of the mission are: Mr. Wilbur F. Boyle, president; Mrs. H. R. Wagoner, vice president; Mrs. E. B. Adams, treasurer; Mrs. C. T. Polander, secretary; and Mrs. Sue Owens, missionary. The Board of Managers are: Mrs. E. W. Hodgmen, Mrs. Andrew Sproule, Mrs. J. E. Berg, Mrs. Glen Campbell, Mrs. Silas Berg, Mrs. Clara Hauk, Mrs. J. H. Hoskins, Jr., Miss Mary Auld.

During the past year Mrs. Owens, missionary, has paid 1,400 visits, obtained 300 days' work for women, 100 days' work for men, distributed 1,035 garments, assisted 404 persons in various ways, and for boys, sent eighty persons out of the city, placed one child in Webster Groves Home and supplied 30 poor families with ice during the intense heat of last summer.

The treasurer's annual report shows receipts to the amount of $2,160.40, disbursements $2,025.39, leaving a balance of $135.01.

The report of the secretary, Miss F. Auld, makes special mention of the work of the average attendance during the year was 23, number of handkerchiefs given for recitation was 2,280, total number of Bible verses recited 2,307, calico used for dresses and shirt waists 1,044 yards, extra reciting dresses for attendance twenty or more Saturdays 121 and boys receiving material for shirt waists eighteen.

EVANGELICAL SYNOD MEETING.

Four Ministers Admitted to Membership—Mission Work Report.

The Missouri Evangelical Synod held an interesting session yesterday at St. Paul's German Evangelical Church. The Reverend J. Pieter of Cincinnati, general president of the synod, who was on his return from the Synod of the Pacific, addressed the meeting in the morning.

The following ministers were received into full membership in the synod: Reverend W. Aufferman, Marshville, Mo.; I. Moritz of Fulton, Mo.; J. Schuck of Big Springs, Mo.; C. F. Stuecklin of Cooper Hill, Mo.

An interesting conference was held on the report of the foreign mission work carried on by the synod. The report showed that the last year had been a very prosperous one, so that it became necessary to add two more new missionaries. No afternoon session was held.

Today three services will be held at St. Paul's Church. The Reverend F. Bauer of Des Peres, Mo., will preach the morning sermon, which will be followed by the Lord's Supper. The afternoon service will be devoted to the deaconess work, and the evening service will center in the consecration of three deaconesses who have completed their probation at the Deaconess Home and Hospital, Sarah street and West Belle place. The candidates are Miss A. Neweher of Taylor, Mo.; Miss Marie Oehler of Stratman, Mo., and Miss Catherine Strub of Cotteville, Mo. The officiating ministers will be the Reverend H. Walser, S. P. Jens and J. Irion.

The German Evangelical Sunday-School Association of the city will hold its annual convention this evening. The principal subject for consideration will be, "How to Awaken Mission Interest and Zeal in the Sunday-School." It is expected that the synod will close its work to-morrow.

BETHANY MISSION CLOSES.

Receives Reports and Awards Prizes for Good Work.

The Bethany Mission for negroes at Nineteenth and Wash streets, held its closing exercises yesterday, with the first Saturday in November. This mission is carried on under the joint management of the Southern Presbyterian churches of the city, and is regarded as an important work.

The officers of the board of managers are: Mrs. Dalton, president, Mrs. Hillberry vice-president, and Mrs. Hoppell, secretary. These are also teachers in the mission, and others are Mrs. Shackelford, Miss Sallie Scruggs, Mrs. Stevens and Miss Anna Green.

The closing exercises yesterday included reports from the officers of the board, which showed that eighty-seven were enrolled and that the average attendance was 82. Prizes were awarded for Bible verses recited, also for neatness, sewing, and other work done in connection with the mission. The quality of the work exhibited was highly commended.

REUNITED AFTER 53 YEARS.

Brother and Sister Parted in St. Louis, Met in Quincy.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Quincy, Ill., April 26.—When James Riley parted from his sister Susan in St. Louis in 1849 for a visit to a friend in Cincinnati, he did not have any idea that it would be fifty-three years before he would see her again. Thursday morning he walked in upon her at her home in this city, entirely unannounced, and the reunion deeply affected both, as Riley is now 72 years of age, and his sister, who is now the widow of John Fitzgerald, is 80. Riley is at present a resident of St. Croix Township, Perry County, Ind. The chain of circumstances which reunited them is one of particular interest.

Last August the Reverend Bluman, assistant rector of St. Peter's Church, made a visit to County Cavan, Ireland, his native home, as well as that of the Rileys. Mrs. Fitzgerald asked him to look up her relatives there. The priest started the inquiry, which were taken up by the parish priest of Cavan. He sent a letter to the St. Louis clergy. This letter was in turn sent to the press, so as to arouse public indignation.

The Coroner this afternoon issued warrants charging Abraham Conham, brother of the senior member of the firm of Conham & Co. at No. 86 Broadway, and Lee

WEALTHY MERCHANTS HELD.

Charged With Being Implicated in Death of Beautiful Cloak Model.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
New York, April 26.—Coroner Scholer, who has investigated the death of Hattie Bailey, a beautiful cloak model, who died in a New York hospital, after an operation made by a woman doctor, angrily attacked the police to-day, and accused them of protecting those responsible for the death of the girl. The Coroner said that the police were disgracefully inactive throughout the whole case and he threatened to give out a statement of all the facts in the case to the press, so as to arouse public indignation.

The Coroner this afternoon issued warrants charging Abraham Conham, brother of the senior member of the firm of Conham & Co. at No. 86 Broadway, and Lee

You will find quick service and pure food at Delicatessen Lunch Rooms.

JOHN ATKINS.
REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Elizabethtown, Mo., April 26.—John Atkins of this city died very suddenly yesterday evening of heart disease, aged about 61 years.
